

Course outcomes for BSW

- 1) Understand the importance of self awareness as it relates to being a professional
- 2) Understand meaning of human diversity, oppression, social justice and advocacy related to social work profession.
- 3) To understand social work values and ethics
- 4) Acquire values, skills and techniques while working with individuals and groups
- 5) Ability to apply social work methods in solving social problems.
- 6) Understand the meaning and nature of values and roles of values in human life
- 7) Students will know the concept and use of social work with youths.
- 8) Understand social group work methods
- 9) Learn about scope of social work profession
- 10) Students come to know the various problems in social work.

Course outcomes for MSW

- 1) Students understand various urban social problems
- 2) Students understand rural governance and Panchayat Raj administration
- 3) To sensitize the students towards gender issues
- 4) Students understand the needs of woman empowerment
- 5) Students acquire knowledge about women's status in Indian society
- 6) Students come to know various labors laws
- 7) Students understand the nature and types of disaster with remedies
- 8) Understand the needs and problems of youth in India
- 9) Understand the concept and need of community development
- 10) Understand the governance of voluntary organization

Programme outcomes of BSW

- 1) Practice social work professional this and code of conducts.
- 2) Students is able to related social work theory into practice.
- 3) Students is able to use social work methods effectively
- 4) Skills and attitudes developed to solve problems of society.
- 5) Students understands professional role with limitations.
- 6) Acquire knowledge to manage and recognize personal values.

- 7) Students develop interpersonal skills.
- 8) Students are able to collect analyze and interpret data in to report.
- 9) Acquire knowledge about human behavior and social environment.
- 10) Can understand the nature and workings of various agencies.
- 11) Develops ability to work in community.
- 12) To promote dedication to work for equity social justice, social harmony and peace.
- 13) Can undertake different field projects or activities in social work and related fields.
- 14) Leadership skills are developed.

Programme outcomes MSW

- 1) Acquire sufficient self awareness towards social work values in working with diverse groups
- 2) Critical thinking ability in adverse condition is developed to great extent.
- 3) More efficiently can practice social work professional values and different techniques.
- 4) Implementation of social policies related to individuals groups and communities.
- 5) Students are well prepared for working as a programme coordinators in govt. offices and Non govt. offices.
- 6) Students skill is well developed to work as social work researches and educators.
- 7) Students oral and written communication skill is well developed
- 8) Develop advocacy capacity for human rights and social justice
- 9) Develop knowledge to use policy action in effective manner
- 10) Attain skills to improve the quality of social services.
- 11) Attain knowledge to initiate actions to achieve organizational goals.
- 12) Ability to use supervision and consultation.
- 13) Develops ability to engage in career long working.

Program specific outcomes for BSW & MSW

- 1) Understand social issues, social problems and social organizations in the society, after the field work and research projects.
- 2) Learn about research methodology in social work.
- 3) Achieve the ability to practice the social work as per values, ethics, standards and principles of the social work profession.
- 4) Students can relate social work theories, social work methods and social work principles to the practice in fields.

- 5) Improve various skills, professional ethics and act according to code of conduct.
- 6) Gains understanding about gender, society, social movements and social welfare in our country.
- 7) Understand social organizations, new policies and trends of social change in the country.
- 8) Understand various fields of social work like community development, human resource management, family and child welfare, labour laws, tribal welfare, personal management, industrial relations, health regarding issues, counselling and different social work methods.
- 9) Learn about different methods of social work like case work, group work, community organizations, social action, social research and social welfare administrations.
- 10) Students are aware of concept, scope of importance and principles of social work.

Program specific outcomes for Value Added Courses

- 1) Students are well aware about Participatory Rural Appraisal and Community Action Plan, its theories and practical use in day to day life.
- 2) Students are having clear cut conceptual clarity about issues of micro planning, its processes and its need.
- 3) Student are well trained to be a counsellor and thus eligible to start counselling in the society.
- 4) Develop skills to real life situations application.
- 5) Can effectively intervene in various problematic situations.
- 6) Develop consciousness for understanding scientific process of community health.
- 7) Develop the ability as a community health worker.
- 8) Develop interest in opening community health organizations in remote areas and tribal areas.
- 9) Are aware of various areas of social work research so as to undertake the social work research.
- 10) Able to train the manpower as a social work researcher, as per the needs of society.
- 11) Develop knowledge about Corporate Social Responsibility towards society.

IQAC Coordinator
Prof. Vijaykumar Waghmare

Principal
Dr. P.S. Patil